

COUNCIL HOLDS SHORT SESSION LAST MONDAY

The Committee Recommends That No Action be Taken Re Market-Deficiency By- Laws Not Allowed

Owing to the meeting in the Empire theatre last Monday evening under the auspices of the Repentance and Hope mission, the regular meeting of the council on that evening was very short, as the members wished to attend the Empire in a body.

Mayor Bett was in the chair and the following members present: Councillors Lavell, Lydiate, Oates McLean, Howard and Crowe.

After the reading and adoption of the previous meeting minutes several small accounts were read and ordered lost.

The committee appointed to look into the matter of securing a suitable building to be used for market purposes reported that the committee investigated the Crown Lumber sheds proposition, and recommended that it be not entertained at present, as the cost to put same in condition would not warrant the move. The report was adopted.

The town solicitor reported that he had heard from the Public Utilities Commission regarding the issuing of deficiency debentures. The commissioner disapproved of the issuing of such debentures at the present time.

O. E. Wille made application for the purchase of lots 12 and 13, in block 134 at the upset price. The application was received and the clerk instructed to apply to the department for permission to deal with same.

Councillor McLean asked that a street light be placed between blocks 134 and 135. The matter was referred to the light committee.

The mayor at this point said that an invitation had been extended to the council, through him, to attend the services at the Empire theatre under the auspices of the Church of England and on motion of Councillor Lavell it was unanimously decided to attend and attend in a body.

Lloyd George Names His New Ministers

The official list of the new Imperial ministry under Lloyd George as presented is as follows:
Mr. Lloyd George, Lord Milner, Earl Curzon, Andrew Bonar Law and Arthur Henderson form what is called officially termed the war cabinet, while the others, who ordinarily have been designated as cabinet ministers, are called heads of departments.

An important point in this novel organization is that it concentrates far more power in the hands of the prime minister than the British system has ever known before. Mr.
Lloyd George's proposal, Premier Asquith was first a war council or cabinet, the premier should not be a member, although he should have the power of naming or dismissing it.

The war cabinet will hold daily sessions, directing the prosecution of the war and the freedom of the press.
Mr. Lloyd George, Lord Milner, Earl Curzon and Mr. Henderson from departmental duties will allow time to devote all their energies to the war.

The work of the exchequer and the government leadership in the house of commons will be absent most of Mr. Bonar Law's time and attendance on the house of lords will necessitate Earl Curzon's absence from the cabinet. It is expected that Mr. Lloyd George, Lord Milner and Mr. Henderson will be the chief directors of the war.

The composition of the new government is 12 Liberals and 15 Unionists, three Laborites and the presidents of the boards of trade and education and the shipping controller, who have been attached to parties.

J. Chadwick, of Regina, formerly of this town, was here for a few days this week on business. He reports a big demand for Redcliffe coal through Saskatchewan, eastern Alberta and Manitoba.

School Board Asks Teachers To Resign

On the night of last last, regular meeting of the school board the teachers attended the meeting in a body intending to interview the board.
As there were not enough trustees on to hold a meeting the teachers asked the chairman to call a special meeting for the following Friday as they wanted to bring some matters to the attention of the board. The request was granted and the meeting held. At it the teachers, through their spokesman told the board they considered the present schools "unfair" to the teachers and asked the board to resider it. The board said they would take the matter up at a future meeting.

A special meeting was held last Monday. As the press was not notified of this star chamber session, we do not know what stand the different trustees took. However as an outcome of it the secretary wrote a letter to Mr. Stone and Miss Gibson asking them to send in their resignations forthwith, and one to Miss Sellen telling her in effect to mind her own business. Miss Lederman and Miss Newbitt were notified that the board could not grant their request.

The Week of Universal Prayer

It has been arranged that this session of spiritual uplift shall be opened on Monday, Dec. 16, at 7:30 p.m. at the services of the Evangelical Alliance, the services will begin on the last day of this month instead of the first. Saturday of the New Year, and continue throughout the week following. There will be a vanguard meeting in the Presbyterian church at 11:30 a.m. on the night of Dec. 31st to which all Christians are invited. On Jan. 1st meetings for prayer and confession will be held, and it is the special request of the local branch of the Alliance that there be no public dances on these days the favor of God in real earnings.

Interned Germans Don't Want Liberty

After protracted negotiations through the medium of the British Society, arrangements have been made for the exchange of German and British civilians who are more than three years old. About 4000 Germans are interned in the United Kingdom and 700 British civilians are interned in Germany. Whether the exchange will reach their respective homes depends upon the success of the admiralty in finding a neutral country for the exchange. The British made to break up the camps for Germans on the Isle of Man and those established for British civilians in Germany.

Only 2,200 of the Germans interned in the United Kingdom expressed a desire to return to Germany. The opportunity offered may well prefer to go to America, it is said.

Saskatchewan Votes Out Liquor Stores

By a positively overwhelming vote returning in the neighborhood of 10 one in the towns and cities and five or six in the villages the men and women of Saskatchewan have voted against the continuance of the government liquor stores system and in favor of prohibition.

Where there was no organization in the contest fighting for the continuance of the stores, while the temperance forces voted out in favor of prohibition. Every newspaper, daily and weekly, in the whole province was out for prohibition.

The soldiers' vote in the cities went strongly against the liquor stores. In fact, with but few exceptions, majorities were recorded for prohibition in every town throughout the length and breadth of the province.

When the result of the vote was known Attorney General Tupper announced that all the government liquor stores in the province would be closed on December 30th.

New Councillors Elected For Town

The election for town councillors passed off very quietly last Monday.
There appeared to be very little interest in the contest and as a result a very small vote was polled.

There were four candidates in the field with only three to be elected.
The candidates were Messrs. Throug-ton, MacLean and Oates. The result of the poll was as follows:
MacLean 108
Throughton 107
Oates 90
Crowe 91

Returning Officer Henderson, who declared the first three named served on the town council for the two-year term of 1917 and 1918.

In all 109 votes were cast.

W. S. McLean Is Now Reported Missing

Some time ago we reported that W.
S. McLean, who left Redcliffe with the 3rd battalion, was wounded in France, and since that time his friends here have been anxiously looking for some further word from him as to how he was progressing. As none (his sister in Glasgow was communicated with and she has written stating that she has received no word from her brother since she got the first word that he was wounded and missing. "If view of these facts it is feared that he must either be a prisoner in Germany or else he has lost his life.

As his friends here thought all along that he was in a hospital in the back country, this news came as a great shock.

Private McLean was well known in this town. At the time he was was a member of the McLaughlin & McLean firm of builders and contractors. His many friends here will undoubtedly look for more favorable news of his whereabouts.

Germany Now Makes Peace Proposals.

A wireless dispatch from Berlin says that in his speech before the reichstag last Tuesday Chancellor Bethmann-Hollweg announced that Germany, together with her allies, conceded their responsibility for the war. He said that Germany's people, before their own nation and before mankind, have proposed to the hostile powers to enter into peace negotiations.

A report from Washington says: Advices from Berlin in the German embassy (last night) that Germany's terms, in general measure, propose the restoration of the status quo before the war with the exception of the establishment of independent kingdoms of Poland and Lithuania.

They are understood to propose the complete restoration of the occupied portions of Belgium and France in return for Germany's captured colonies and to dispose of the Balkan situation, in case of its extremely complicated nature, in the peace conference.

READ YOUR INSURANCE POLICY

The following, or a similar clause, appears in all policies of fire insurance:
"The company is not liable for losses following that is to say: Where the insured, on any building or their contents for loss caused by the want of food and substantial brick or stone or cement chimneys; or by ashes or embers being deposited, with the knowledge and consent of the assured, in wooden vessels or by other or stove-pipe belong to the knowledge of the assured, in an unsafe condition, or improperly secured."

Notwithstanding this, in 1916, there were 51 fires from defective and overheated stoves and furnaces; 62 from defective and over-heated chimneys, chimneys, etc., and 5 by fire coals and hot ashes.

Should the insurance companies take advantage of these clauses, many victims of their own carelessness would find themselves without any recompense for their losses.

Jeag Willard, the world's champion jeep-wheeled boxer, will spend Christmas week in Redcliffe. He is the brother of the boxer who was killed for his brother. He will put on a show in the Empire theatre shortly.

FARMERS ARE ORGANIZING STORE HERE

Will Form Joint Stock Co. To Operate General Mer- chandise Business -- Will Hold Meeting on 22nd

Negotiations are now under way for the organizing of a joint stock company, composed of farmers of the district. It is the intention of the company to go into the retail business with headquarters here in Redcliffe.
Arrangements are being made with W. Kates to amalgamate his stock and premises with the new company and for him to undertake the management of the business.

The preliminary steps have already been taken to become incorporated and provisional directors appointed.
A meeting of all the farmers of the district who are interested in the movement is called for Friday, Dec.
22nd when it is expected that final arrangements will be made. This meeting will be held in Mr. Kates' store and every farmer, whether he has been or is not, is urged to attend. The meeting is to be held on the 22nd instead of the 21st as the 21st is a complete stock of general merchandise and in addition a fine of implements, tools, etc., will be on hand. It is expected that the company will be able to open for business on the 22nd.

We are asked to specially draw the attention of all farmers to the meeting to be held on the 22nd inst.

sels engaged, it was said, will be of considerable tonnage.

"Dick" Hodge Is Heard From

Mrs. R. S. Hodge in this week in receipt of the first letter from her husband since he was wounded in France.
Dick writes that his left hand "was badly shattered by a shell and that he also got several minor wounds in his arm and side. He states, however, that he is progressing favorably, although he fears his hand will never be well enough to permit him to return to the trenches. He received his wounds while fighting in a binding movement, an account of which was read in the papers a few weeks ago.
One of his officers, Lieut. Price Jones, was killed in the same battle.

Lloyd George Issues New War Program

Lord Northcliffe's organ, the Weekly Dispatch, says that Premier Lloyd George's war program comprises the following:

- First--The arming of mercantile in order to fight submarines.
- Second--The preparation of the spring offensive.
- Third--The mobilization of the civil service in order to help the army.
- Fourth--The making effective of the blockade.
- Fifth--The rationing of the population by the issue of food tickets.
- Sixth--The increasing of the home production.
- Seventh--The banning of work important to the war.
- Eighth--Enforcing the prohibition of luxuries.
- Ninth--The studying of meetings days.

From beds, all furniture, pictures, and upholstering goods at bargain prices at D. F. F. Robertson furniture

Mrs. E. L. Belmont left on yesterday morning's train for Minneapolis, Minn., where she will visit till after Christmas.

Miss Anne White left Wednesday morning for Cincinnati, Ohio, where she will visit friends during the Christmas holidays.

In a head-on collision between two passenger trains on the Crow's Nest line, last Saturday, E. S. Parker, of Medicine Hat, a mail clerk, was killed.
He had just been married a few days.

The members of the Maconic lodge will attend the regular service at St.
Andrew's church next Sunday morning. The local members and all visiting Macons are asked to meet at the room, Crow's Nest, at 10:30 a.m. sharp. There will be a memorial service for Brother Reynolds, who fell in battle.

The two concerts put on by local talent during the past week under the auspices of the organizations in connection with the Presbyterian and Baptist churches respectively, attracted crowded houses. Judging from the enthusiastic manner with which the different items were received the people were well pleased with the work of our home talent. Many flattering remarks were heard on all sides and the hope expressed that we should have more such entertainments.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Irwin and daughter of the Bennett district, left last Wednesday for Orangeville, Ont., where they will spend the winter. Mr. Irwin settled west of here about five years ago and since that time has been very successful in his farming operations. He now has three quarter sections of land and last year harvested over thirteen thousand bushels of wheat. Although he has not so far large yield this year the advanced price will net him an even greater surplus this year than last.

Word has been received this week that Billy Watson, who left Redcliffe with one of the first battalions to leave Alberta. He was wounded some time ago but was sufficiently recovered to do service in one of the dressing stations in Espoon. He has been at this work for about two months and expects to be kept at it for some time yet. He says that C.
Byron, another Redcliffe boy, is doing the same kind of work at the same station. He also saw Wm. Harvey, whom he says was badly wounded and has undergone some operations.
He says that Harvey has come through, however, he is now getting along nicely.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICE OPENS MISSION WEEK

Meeting Held in Empire Theatre was Fitting Open- ing For Repentance And Hope Mission

The week of special services which are being conducted at St. Ambrose church in connection with the mission of Repentance and Hope, was very fittingly opened with a public meeting in the Empire theatre last Monday evening. The meeting took the form of a service which was most impressive and in which a number of other services to the church during the week. He then called on Mayor Bett to address the meeting. In opening his remarks the mayor said that representing the council and citizens he esteemed it an honor to be associated with such a worthy movement as the one under which these services were gathered. His worship was in excellent form and made a very impressive contribution to the service.

spring offensive.

Rev. H. C. Gibson opened the meeting by explaining the object of the gathering and extending an invita-

AN UNFORTUNATE AFFAIR.

The action of the school board in summarily calling for the resignation of two of the teachers on the public school staff, writing what looks to us like a very discourteous and unbusinesslike letter to a third one, and practically disorganizing the whole staff, is indeed a very unfortunate affair. Particularly so at this time when good teachers are so scarce and when it was admitted by all that for the past term we have had the best staff of public teachers we have ever had since the school was opened.

In view of the circumstances which led up to this action the Review is of the opinion that the board has acted very unfairly with the teachers.

The teachers in a business-like way, waited on the board and drew their attention to what they considered was an unfairness in the salary schedule, and requested that they—the board—reconsider the matter before putting the schedule into operation. For making this simple request the board writes the teacher who was asked by the other teachers to act as spokesman for the occasion, and another of the teachers to send in their resignations.

What fair minded business man would think of discharging an admittedly capable employee simply because that employee had the gumption to ask for a raise of salary if he thought he was worth it? None. Then why should our school board treat our teachers that way.

If the members of the school board could not see their way clear to grant the request of the teachers all they had to do was to say so in a courteous business like way.

"POOR DOPE."

In an editorial in the issue of last Saturday, the Medicine Hat News said: "The introduction of the Dominion Harvester Company matter into the mayoralty election is 'poor dope.'"

The Review agrees with the News that it was "poor dope" but one of the outstanding reasons it was is because things in connection with the deal were misrepresented. In this respect the News itself was one of the greatest offenders. When the News said the Redcliff Motors Company was a defunct company and that its $30,000.00 plant was secured for $6,000.00, it stated what it should have known were not the facts. The Motors Company was not a defunct institution. It was one of the few industries in the west that had weathered through the stringent period and still had a good substantial bank account to its credit.

Again the News is guilty of misrepresentation when it states that the Motors Company here sacrificed its plant to the extent of some $24,000. This plant was fitted up with first class machinery, among which were some of the very best lathes in Canada. As that class of machinery is higher priced now than it was before it should not require a very bright person to know that it was not necessary to sacrifice it at the present time.

Yes it was "poor dope" but at that it was no worse than introducing Manager Ratcliff into the controversy as the News did.

LIVE AND LET LIVE.

It is a well known fact that when the necessities of life come soaring in price almost everything else must necessarily and naturally have an upward tendency. It is also well known that when the necessities start going up the farmer is the one who benefits most by it.

In view of these facts it is surprising to learn that at the present time when everything they sell is at the top notch price the farmers are among the first to complain about 'advances in other lines.

Only the other day we heard of a farmer complaining vigorously because the price of coal was advanced at the mine here; and just after he had sold his wheat at almost $2.00 a bushel at that.

It is only natural that when it costs more to produce a ton of coal because of the advance in price of other materials, the price of that ton of coal will be advanced to the consumer. Even so that the price of coal has not increased in anything like the proportion grain and other necessities have increased.

Just now we are passing through the most critical stage in our history. A stage where there is more need than ever before of at least trying to live up to the advice of "Live and let live."

LIVE STOCK ON FARMS.

Farmers are being repeatedly urged to keep more live stock on their farms. Many reasons why they should do so are given, chiefly that stock farming is profitable and that it will increase the fertility of the soil. Certain points are often insufficiently emphasized in the discussion of the question. If stock farming is to be profitable, the stock must be of good quality, and must be given proper and intelligent care. Scrub stock never did and never will yield the profitable returns which are to be derived from pure bred or high grade stock. Those who are in the stock business, or who contemplate going into it, can not afford to overlook this consideration. Canada has too much poor stock; what we need is more good stock.

If the fertility of the soil on the stock farm is to be increased or even maintained, wise management in connection with the rotation of crops, the care and use of the manure, and the tillage operations must accompany the keeping of the stock. Meat and the various dairy products cannot be made from nothing any more than can grain and hay, and if these are sold from the farm, the fertility taken from the soil in their production must be restored. A test conducted on two Iowa farms, one a grain farm and the other a stock farm, where pure-bred stock was kept, showed that the soil on the grain farm was more fertile than on the stock farm. This was largely due to the rotation followed and judicious management by the grain farmer.

The live stock farmer, however, made $799 over the five per cent interest on his investment, while the grain farmer lacked $380 of even making interest on his investment. It must be remembered, also, that the stock farmer had a larger investment upon which to allow interest. These men were both good farmers and it was not poor management that led to the difference in profits. The man who made the greater profits could afford to invest a part of same in purchasing and applying to his soil what is required to maintain fertility and still be ahead, or he could arrange his rotation in such a way that his soil would not become impoverished.

It is only eleven days till Christmas. All the stores in town are fully stocked up with a good assortment of goods suitable for Christmas presents in all lines. Past experience has shown that the early Christmas shopper gets the best satisfaction, as he has the advantage of selection and service. Don't leave your shopping, therefore, till the last minute. We would also remind our readers to, as far as possible, to do their own delivering. This will not only be much more satisfactory to the purchasers but also be a great help to the merchants and clerks.

Some of the delivery men in town inform us there are two or three dangerous holes on the streets caused by leaks in the water mains. Already some teamsters have reason to be about them. They should be attended to before any serious damage is done.

From this distance the new Lloyd George government looks very much like a Unionist administration.

Have decided that we could not give our customers real comfort at all times owing to our cars being too small. We have now purchased a seven-passenger car which is one of the best.

We will keep our cars on the road all winter until the snow stops. Customers need not stand around the streets in the cold, as we have a good warm place for you to wait.

In our last issue we stated that the R. Everett mentioned in the casualty list the previous week was not Robt. Everett from here. His friends here are, however, convinced that it is he, as the number given was the same as our ex-policeman's. We have not learned the extent of his wounds but trust they are not serious.

The prize winners for the billiard tournament at Mac's for the month of November were decided on last week. W. Keats won the first prize and C. Dombrowski the second. A. L. Lamm won the special prize for the biggest break. The December tournament is now in full swing and has a much larger entry list than last month's.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE TOWN OF REDCLIFF

I wish to take this opportunity to extend to you my hearty thanks for the liberal support you gave me in the election last Monday.

I assure that in helping to conduct the affairs of the town I will always try to do it in a manner that will merit the confidence you have placed in me.

Yours respectfully,
 F. O. MacLEAN.
